

Youth Program Sponsorship Opportunities

The Native Nations Institute for Leadership, Management, and Policy (NNI) at The University of Arizona is pleased to offer two summer youth programs, the Native American Youth Governance Camp and the Native American Youth Entrepreneur Camp. These programs have been designed to instill comprehensive governance and business skills in Native American youth so that they can play leading roles in creating brighter futures for their communities and nations. Your sponsorship of these programs will enable NNI to provide scholarships and to cover camp expenses. Sponsorship packages are available at varying levels, as listed below:

ⁱ We receive a number of applications from students who are interested, but unable to cover their tuition costs. Scholarships are open to any applicant, unless otherwise designated (i.e., for a specific tribe, region, etc.).

ⁱⁱ Sponsors are responsible for supplying their display banners. NAYEC banner will be displayed at the youth marketplace. NAYGC banner will be displayed at the opening dinner.

ⁱⁱⁱ Any monetary value not defined by the above levels; minimum of $100.

^{iv} Any item(s) that can be used for prizes, special awards, and materials during the camp are also welcome. Examples of items that can be used as material are pens, note pads, calculators, gift certificates, etc.
